

SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES

LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR MASTER BY RESEARCH

At the end of the programme, graduates must be able to:

1. Master knowledge in the relevant field;
2. Apply practical skills in the relevant field;
3. Organize ideas related to societal issues in the relevant field;
4. Conduct research with minimum supervision and adhere to the legal ethical and professional code of practice in the relevant field
5. Communicate and work effectively with peers and stakeholders indicating leadership qualities;
6. Devise solutions to problems in the relevant field using scientific and critical thinking skills; and
7. Manage information to develop lifelong learning in the relevant field.