

GLOBAL PLACEMENT PROGRAM

Humanitarian Affairs Asia is proud to offer a unique opportunity to students and recent graduates seeking to obtain work experience and enhance their resume while working for a cause. The eligible students may apply for internship with Humanitarian Affairs at Asia Secretariat, and eligible recent graduates are welcome to apply for an apprenticeship.

Graduate Apprentices will assume a managerial position within the organization as a management trainee, whereas undergraduates who are currently enrolled in an accredited institution are designated as Global Event Associates.

During the 7 to 12 months placement, you will work alongside with other interns and young professionals from diverse fields and backgrounds, apply what you have learned during your academic programmes in a challenging and stimulating work setting, explore your interests towards a particular career or industry, network at a global scale, boost your credentials, and get the opportunity to transform your lives and the lives of the disadvantaged in Asia.
