

BRIEF BIODATA

Muhammad Nazmin Yaapar obtained his degree in Agriculture Science at Universiti Putra Malaysia and PhD from The University of Sheffield, United Kingdom. He has a wide knowledge and experience in general plant physiology and rice science research. He is affiliated to the Department of Crop Science, Universiti Putra Malaysia, where he is currently working as a Senior Lecturer. He has experience in teaching various plant science subjects at university level including agriculture botany, weed science, crop nutrition, rice production and crop physiology. He has authored and co-authored several national and international publications and also working as a reviewer for reputed professional journals. Moreover, he is having an active association with a photosynthesis research team in the United Kingdom. He has been regularly recognised by the local media as the reference scientist particularly in rice cultivation and crop improvement.