

Part-time Mode Graduate Study Programme

The School of Graduate Studies of UPM is now offering part-time mode graduate study programmes as an option for students who meet the requirements.

The following are the requirements of this mode:

1. Admission

- a. This mode is offered to local students only.
- b. This mode offered to both students in programme by research and by coursework

2. Activities and Duration of Study

- a. Like full-time students, students enrolled in the part-time mode are subject to the UPM Graduate Study Rules, except for matters related to the duration of study.
- b. The duration of study for Master's students is from four to eight (4-8) semesters while duration of study for PhD students is from eight to twelve (8-12) semesters.
- c. Students are required to register a minimum of four (4) credits for each semester.
- d. The Seminar Research Proposal (SPS5903/SPS6903) must be completed no later than the third semester. Student must seat for Comprehensive Exam no later than the seventh semester.

3. Application

- a. Student shall complete the form.
- b. Admission into this study mode is subject to the approval/consent of the supervisor/faculty.